

Tracy Press

4/27/10

Traina students earn kudos

Myriad Traina Elementary students have earned notice in recent local events. In the Whiz Kids competition, Barry Nehoran received second in seventh-and-eighth-grade spelling, third in eighth-grade speech, and third in eighth-grade writing. Effie Nehoran placed first in seventh-grade writing.

In the Science Olympiad, Traina's Purple Team placed 14th out of 52 teams. Roy Nehoran and Kyle Koontz took home first place in Metric Mastery; Bill Yang, Chris Chen and Lillian Zhang finished fourth in the Science Bowl; Jack Petrin, Kiran Sekhon and Ashley Abalos were fifth in Mission Possible; in the Straw Egg Drop, Roy and Lillian placed fifth; Sandeep Kamboj and Sampreeth Salveru were ninth in Disease Detectives; Ray Nehoran was ninth in Pond Study; Roy and Kyle placed 10th in Barge Building; and Annie Chea and Kyle finished 11th in Get Your Bearing.

For Traina's Yellow Team, Paneet Khaira, Sarah Sailors and Octavio Ramalho finished eighth in Mission Possible; Pedro Ribeiro and Octavio finished ninth in Get Your Bearing; and Pedro and Justin Malogan finished 11th in Barge Building. Overall, the Yellow Team placed 31st out of 52 teams.