Re: Out of State Travel for Teaching, Learning, Coaching Conference

We would like to send our three District Instructional Coaches and their Supervisor to the world's leading conference on instructional coaching, teaching, and learning, where more than 30 education experts and practitioners will lead keynote presentations and learning sessions focused on high-impact teaching strategies, proven instructional coaching practices, and system change strategies for creating high-performance schools. The Teaching, Learning, Coaching Conference is a community of educators who make connections, share best practices, solve problems, make breakthroughs, found movements, and create the future of schools committed to a shared goal of excellent instruction, every day, for every student in every classroom.

Conference Dates: October 9 – 11, 2018

Location: The Westin, Henderson, Nevada

The estimated total district cost is approximately $8,403.84. We plan to pay with Title II funding, out of resource code 4035.

Recommended Action: Approve the Teaching, Learning, Coaching Conference registration, travel, and accommodations for our District Coaching Team.
