V. EDUCATIONAL SERVICES

5.1 Student Body Reports – Natalie Hewey, Monticello president- Caring is the character pillar this month. Monticello showed how much they cared by raising over $5,000 for “Jump Rope for Heart”. Dr. Seuss' birthday was celebrated all last week with different Dr. Seuss related spirit days. Spirit Day is March 24, 2016. Star Lab is coming up next week for the 1st and 3rd grades. The parent/student “Under the Sea” dance is Friday.

Alexandra Manzo, Hawkins president – Fun Fridays are days where K-5 students are able to spend time after school to play games and interact with friends. March 18th, Hawkins will have a Black and White semi-formal dance for 6-8 grades. Students from sister city, Memuro Japan, will be attending Hawkins the same day. The Memuro students will also attend the Black and White dance. Science Olympiad occurred and Ms. DeWood was recognized for her years of contribution to Science Olympiad. Jump Rope for Heart is occurring and CAASP testing will begin next month as well.

Cierra Spikes, president for Jefferson – The Jefferson semi-formal dance went well with lots of dancing, a photo booth and DJ. Book Faire occurred as well. The Jefferson Band is doing fund raising for their upcoming Disneyland trip. The band went to Delta College on a field trip where they were critiqued by professionals about their performance. The Jefferson basketball teams are working hard. Excessive Accessory Day is coming up as student fun day.

Amy Lee, Traina president – In February, Traina had Black & White spirit day. “Read Across America” spirit days were also held. Traina students, Manpreet Kaur and Sophie Chen, received first place awards at the Science Olympiad. The Traina Band went to Delta College and played for the school's band director and were critiqued. Traina 8th graders are preparing for their exit interviews. In March, Traina's ASB will be having their second annual college week followed by a dance.

5.2 Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP) Update- Dr. Bridges discussed where we are in the LCAP process. At this time the community, staff, and student surveys have been sent, as well as the Healthy Kids surveys. The Staff surveys have been sent out and are being reviewed as they come in. Dr. Bridges has met with the S.J. County LCAP team and the LCAP advisory committee. Dr. Bridges reiterated the three main LCAP goals and discussed the input that has been received for each goal from surveys and forums. An update of the staff forum will be at a future meeting.

5.3 Student Enrollment – enrollment is up 5 more students. Dr. Bridges noted that Kindergarten will be all day for the 2016-2017 school year.
