Welcome from Board President Mr. Carlson

Superintendent’s Report – Dr. Bridges attended Breakthrough Coaching in July. This program is designed to provide administrators more time to be in the classrooms where important things are happening. Dr. Bridges’ goal is to be on a school site for the entire day at least one day each week. So far, he has spent an entire day each at Monticello and Jefferson, and it has been great to be with students and teachers in the classrooms, before school, and at dismissal.

Haggerty Construction set an ambitious goal for the Tom Hawkins Administrative Building remodel as they had targeted August 6th to finish. There was an issue with a structural beam and issues with vinyl wall coverings so now the date will be mid-September for the project to be completed. Dr. Bridges thanked the staff at Tom Hawkins and Ms. Orsi for managing the beginning of the school year without an office.

PJGM architect, Ken Podany, has come up with a great design for Corral Hollow Elementary School. Dr. Bridges will be holding planning meetings with classified staff, teachers, and administrators to provide them an opportunity to see the school designs and provide feedback. Dr. Bridges thanked Sam Hagler for all that he’s done regarding the remodel of the District Board Room.
