Dear Jefferson Families,

Wow! What an amazing fundraiser we had this past week for our music program. Jefferson alumni, staff, community members, parents and students all came together to celebrate and support our band students. What is truly amazing is the time and effort our students put into the program by practicing many hours, decorating, and working together to run this event. Our very own 8th grader, Jonathan Shin, led the band through several large group pieces and then individual groups as they played while guests were enjoying a catered steak and chicken dinner. This is the first of many events to come, so be on the lookout in our newsletters, marquee and flyers for your opportunity to see our students shine.

The second trimester starts on Monday, February 25th. Let's work together to do all we can to make this the most successful trimester for your child. What can you do to help? Kids Health is a wonderful resource for parents, kids, and teens (<https://kidshealth.org/en/parents/school-help-middle.html>). Kids Health suggests ten ways to keep your child on track for academic success in middle school: attend parent meetings, visit the school and its website, support homework expectations, send your child to school ready to learn, instill organization skills, teach study skills, know the disciplinary and bullying policies, get involved, take attendance seriously, and take time to talk about school. Jefferson staff is specifically working on teaching our students study skills to take with them to high school and beyond. This site gave specific suggestions that are beneficial for teachers, parents and students. They suggested to: know when tests are scheduled and plan enough study time before each one, remind your child to take notes in class and then review them at home each day, practice often to help the brain process and use the information more effectively, complete practice problems before a test in mathematics, and have your child get a good night's sleep versus cramming the night before.

Reminder, there is no school for students this Friday, March 1st. Thank you for your continued support, communication, and taking the time to read the Jefferson newsletter. Feel free to contact me at any time at awooten@sicoe.net or (209) 835-3053 with any questions, comments, or suggestions.

Sincerely,

Alyssa Wooten

Principal
