Dear Jefferson Families,

This year sure flew by! I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of the families, staff members, and students for an amazing year. I am absolutely honored to be part of this incredible school. The staff worked extremely hard this year to prepare our students for success and for the next grade level. Our students are ready for a well-deserved summer.

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You are on your own and you know what you know. You are the guy to who'll decide where to go." ~ Dr. Seuss

Be sure to check emails and keep an eye out for Back To School Packets over the summer break. As always, please feel free to contact me at awooten@sicoe.net with any suggestions or questions. I hope you all enjoy your time off and we look forward to seeing you in the Fall of 2017.

Sincerely,

Alyssa Wooten
Principal

The Great Valley Writing Project presents
Jefferson School District
Youth Writing Camp

Unleash your inner author and learn how to code to create your own web page! Publish your creative writing and share it with the world on a web page you create. This program offers a unique opportunity for students to develop their writing talents. Under the guidance of experienced Great Valley Writing Project Teacher Consultants, students have a chance to grow as writers. Students share writings with fellow students, conference with teachers, and experiment with a variety of genres and creative techniques.

This program is open ONLY to incoming 4-8 grade students enrolled in Jefferson School District and the children of Jefferson School District employees.

Instructors:

Nicole Craft – Mrs. Craft teaches 7/8th grade science at Anthony Traina School. Mrs. Craft is known for her hands-on lessons and innovative use of writing in science. Mrs. Craft has been a teacher consultant with the Great Valley Writing Project since 2014, and she was recognized as Anthony Traina Teacher of the year in 2016.

Paul Fern – Mr. Fern teaches 5th grade at Jefferson School and enjoys writing with his students in language arts and history. Mr. Fern began working with the Great Valley Writing Project in 2002 and has worked in youth writing camps for 10 years. Mr. Fern was also recognized as Jefferson School Teacher of the Year in 2016.

I hereby authorize Tracy Public Schools, their employees, agents, and camp volunteers to act for me according to their best judgment in any emergency requiring medical attention. Also, I hereby waive and release Tracy Public Schools, their employees, agents, and camp volunteers from any and all liability for injuries, illnesses or loss of property incurred while at the clinic. I have no knowledge of any physical impairment that would be affected by the named camper participating in the clinic program as outlined. My signature on this waiver also states that the named camper is covered by my personal medical insurance policy.
