Good Evening Amazing Jefferson Families,

I want to thank you all for your understanding and patience this week with our challenges with the flooding and road closures. It was definitely a little hectic with everyone having to pick up in the front of the school so thank you again for working as a team to make sure we kept our children safe.

This past week was our Annual Jefferson Art show and it was amazing. Students and staff have been working on their art for the past few months and we had some phenomenal entries. Here's a peek at the art display. Thank you to all of the artists that contributed to the show!

Basketball season is underway and all 4 teams have had their first games of the season. They are all working hard and I have already seen improvement from the beginning of the season. Come out and support the teams if you can. Games are on Tuesdays and Thursdays after school. Check in with the front office for a schedule of locations.

On Monday, we celebrate a great leader and activist, Martin Luther King Jr. We have been talking about his impact this week at school and I have shared some quotes with students that relate to our school community here at Jefferson. I am a firm believer that the past teaches us about the present and I hope you are able to enjoy the holiday on Monday and speak to your child(ren) about the impact MLK had on our society.

That's all for now. Have a great weekend and GO WILDCATS!

Attendance

Every Day Counts

Chronic absenteeism is a serious problem on our campus. Many students are absent or tardy on a regular basis and this has a huge impact on their learning. We want you to join us in making school attendance a high priority for your family. Remember, school is your child's first and most important job. Please support them by getting them here on time and scheduling appointments and vacations outside the school day.
